FOUR-STAR GENERALCIA Officer Stops Over
In City To Visit Brother

Gen. C. P. Cabell, USAF, arrived here yesterday afternoon for an overnight visit with his brother, Ben Cabell, who moved here recently.

the Mediterranean Allied Air Forces, director of plans for the U. S. Strategic Air Forces in Europe, and director of intelligence for the U. S. Air Force.

The four star general combined his visit as a reunion with his roommate at West Point Military Academy, Brig. Gen. Donald Dunford, U. S. Army, retired. They stayed in the Driscoll Hotel.

Cabell is now deputy director of the Central Intelligence Agency under Allen Dulles. He said he is temporarily detached from the Air Force while filling this assignment. He has been with the CIA five years.

"It is a fascinating business," the general said. "No one is in it who doesn't want to be because it is demanding and exacting and you have to like it to stay."

Cabell has served as director of operations and intelligence for
